THE FARMER CATCHES IT

The economically unequal position farmers find themselves in was strikingly illustrated Wednesday morning when a Morgan farmer brought four dozen eggs to a local store, traded them for a pound of coffee, and the farmer had to pay 7c difference.
Eggs are 25c a dozen and coffee is $1.07 a pound.

VANCE FORK NAMED FOR JOHNNIE VANCE WHO CAME FROM VIRGINIA

One of the best farming areas in Morgan county and a region where at one time large oak and poplars grew in abundance is the Vance Fork of White Oak.
One of the first settlers in this section was Johnnie Vance, who came from Cedar Bluffs, Virginia in 1862 during the Civil War and settled on Vance Fork. He brought his family in a wagon and led two milk cows. One of the cows died soon after the family arrived because of lack of feed.

He built his log house near the foot of the hill and later built another one and moved to it at the site where Lee Vance, one of his great grandsons, now lives.
Henry Wise Vance, another great grandson, who lives near the school, remembers hearing his grandfather tell of his horse being taken by soldiers, but returned.
His wife was Rhoda Griffiths Vance, a sister to James Griffiths, William Griffiths and George Griffiths, early pioneers.

He obtained a large tract of land and worked hard with his ten sons to make a living. His sons were: William, Alex W., Jake, George, Allen, John, Gus, Riley, Dave and Harvey. Only one is now living—Dave Vance, who lives at Cedar Bluffs, Va., having moved back there a number of years ago.

There were four daughters—Mrs. Sarah Haney, wife of John Haney, Mary Mullens, wife of George Mullens, Rinda Harper, wife of Harve Harper, and Margaret Helton, wife of Jesse Helton. None are now living. However, there are many descendants from all the families. At one time many of them lived on the creek.

POLIO VACCINE USE STRESSED

The Morgan County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will award cash prizes to schools in a contest to stimulate the use of Salk vaccine.
It was decided at a meeting of the chapter Tuesday evening in Stamper's Restaurant.

Mrs. H. B. Murray, president of the chapter, presided, and Joe Morgan, district representative of the National Foundation, addressed the group and stated the March of Dimes drive in Morgan this year was the most successful ever conducted. Then he conducted a round table discussion of how best to stimulate the use of Salk vaccine to protect against infantile paralysis. "Polio," he said, "is not a childhood disease entirely—more and more adults are coming down with the disease." The health department gives free shots to children up to 19 years and to expectant mothers. Adults are immunized by doctors. Three shots at intervals are necessary for immunization.

The local chapter will award cash prizes of $10 to rural schools that achieve 100 per cent immunization, and prizes of $50 to consolidated schools that achieve 75 per cent immunization of students.

Attending the meeting were Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Murray, Mrs.
Mae Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sinclair, Lloyd Patterson, Mrs.
Stanley Gullett, Mrs. Robert Conover, Mrs. Ralph Gullett, Mrs.

BENEFIT PROGRAMS, DONATIONS OUTFIT BAND IN NEW UNIFORMS

A Negro Minstrel and a baka sale have been two events to take place here recently that have benefited the Morgan County high school band. The P. T. A. sponsored the minstrel Feb. 23, and the newly organized Band Mother's Club, Sally Seragg, president, sponsored a baka sale on that date.

Mrs. Stamper and the band members wish to thank Lloyd Patterson, principal, for proceeds from the Morgan County-Inez basketball game. They would like to thank everyone who has contributed in any way to help them obtain new band uniforms. There are 40 band members at present.

The band is now working on music for a spring concert which will be given the evening of May 23 at the Morgan County high school gymnasium.

the band.

NET TEAM GUESTS OF KIWANIS CLUB

Coach Bob Laughlin of the Morehead College Eagles was guest speaker here Wednesday evening when the Kiwanis Club entertained the Morgan County high school basketball team, its coach, managers and cheer lead-the team was held in Stamper's Restaurant.

Players present were Ernie Tyree, Bobby Rose, Scotty Elliott,

Coach Laughlin's talk was humorous and entertaining. He said West Liberty is a part of Morehead College and that he "farms out some of his players to West Liberty," referring to Steve Hamilton, star performer of More-head's net team and star pitcher for West Liberty's Blue Sox baseball team.

ELAM MAKES STATEMENT

I have entered the race for county judge with the sole purpose of rendering service to Morgan County. I was born at Index, on Little Caney. My father was Noah T. Elam, now deceased, and my mother is Lizzie Sargent Elam, now living at Index. I have been in business in West Liberty for the past 22 years. I am a member of Highland Lodge 311, in West Liberty.

I have always been keenly interested in progress in our county, having helped financially and otherwise in such projects as the County Fair, 4-H clubs, F.F.A. work, West Liberty swimming pool and play grounds, the young people's meetings, the Boy Scouts, the churches, schools, various fund drives, orphanages, underprivileged children and many other civic projects. It is my belief that as our schools, roads, churches, and farms progress, so do we all.

My one promise in this campaign is that I will, if elected, serve to the best of my ability, and show no favoritism in rendering my duties. I am especially interested in our schools and roads.
I believe I would be in a position to secure maximum help from our state government toward achieving these goals.

I hope to see and talk with all the voters between now and the primary.

The county's 22 clubs have selected their best performers and

Homemakers Have Made Over 350 Hats

When it comes to hat making the Morgan County Homemakers are certainly surprising their husbands. 350 hats are under construction and from the interest and enthusiasm it looks like the number will go over 500. Several women have made five or six. The expense to is very little. Mrs. Hayden Ratliff has made five hats and the expense has been under $2.00.
These lessons have been taught by Homemaker leaders at the 20 community meetings this month.

A training school for leaders will be held Friday, March 22 at the R.E.A. building. Miss Rachel Rowland, clothing specialist from the University of Kentucky, will teach the women how to trim their hats with veiling, flowers, and buttons.

"God Is Our Landlord" Film To Be Shown Here

The Men's Christian Brotherhood of the First Church of God on Broadway is sponsoring a film to be shown Saturday, March 24, at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church.

Title of the film is "God Is My Landlord."

It depicts in color the dramatic "Dynamic Kermers Project" carried on by Perry Hayden. Starting with a cubic inch of wheat and twelve boys to help plant the wheat, the project grew until in the sixth year it attracted a crowd of 15,000 persons and the yield was 72,150 bushels.

Along with the great fundamental truths that are taught, the viewer will be able to see past history in action as old relic machinery is put to work in the harvest.

Henry Ford and other personalities who helped make the project possible will also be seen.

This film should be of interest to educator, teacher, church leader and all others, not only for its historical accuracy and presentation of past inventions, but because of the definite spiritual enlightenment to be received.

The pastor, Glenn E. McAllister, invites everyone to attend.

BASEBALL MEET TO START BLUE SOX SET FRIDAY

Fans Hope Locals Can Again Coo the State Championship

Clarence Black, West Liberty Blue Sox baseball manager, thinks his club may repeat last year's record or better it this year. They won the Kentucky Semi-Pro Championship last year.

With basketball season ended and spring in the air, Manager Black plans an early start on baseball practice.

He has called a meeting of businessmen and baseball fans for Friday night of this week. The meeting will be held in the city hall Friday evening at 7:30. He requests all businessmen and persons interested in a West Liberty baseball team to be present.

Black's West Liberty Blue Sox defeated Emma of Floyd county 7-0 to win the Kentucky semi-pro title last season. Five Blue Sox players were placed on the All-Kentucky Team—Steve Hamilton, Guy Strong, Charles Caudill, Merle Nickell and Paul Tesla.

After winning the Kentucky crown, the Blue Sox went to Greenville, Tenn., and played a two-best-out-of-three series with the Tennessee champs, but lost the series. Greenville is a town of 8,000.

Scouts for the Yankees and Cleveland scouted the Blue Sox when they played the state championship game last year. The scouts, it is understood, filled J. cards on a number of the West Liberty players.

Members of the team were—Steve Hamilton, Merle Nickell, Harold Hammond, Billie Ratliff, Matt Tesla, Richie Stacy, Guy Strong, Gene Harp, Freddie Blair, Walter Brown and Lynn Nickell.

The 1956 Official Baseball Annual of the National Baseball Congress issued two weeks ago carries a picture of the West Liberty championship team and devotes more than a page to their playing record.

All baseball fans are reminded again to attend Friday night's meeting to plan for another winning Blue Sox team.

posed Pioneer Museum for Morgan County.

IN MEMORIAM

A tribute of love and devotion to the memory of our husband and father, Volney Elam, who left us seven years ago March 30, 1950.

Seven years ago today God saw fit to take you away Dear Daddy, we still miss you God's will must be done. If this race is ever won I like to think how we used to pray.

Around our altar each day, God's blessing was on us in a merry way.

God was so good to spare us Till we would repent of sin, We pray we will meet you on the other side.

When the Lord comes to catch away the bride.

Dear Lord, help our children repent of their sins, so when they are called they will enter in.

"Topsoil" is the most important ingredient in the commodity we know as "land."

At present the only ones living there are Henry Wise Vance, Lee Vance, Lige Vance and Goebel Vance. Living on Vance Fork now, in addition to the ones named, are: Sam Litteral, Arnie Lewis, Anna Vance and Gertie Tussey.

A good part of this information was obtained from H. W. Vance and his wife. They remember hearing his father, A. W. Vance, tell about coming to Kentucky when he was 10 years old. They camped the last night on what is now Lick Creek in Magoffin county.

For sometime after settling they had to go to West Liberty as the closest store and it took a hard day's ride on horseback to make the trip.

Near the foot of the hill and not far from the new highway up the creek is the Vance Cemetery where Johnnie Vance, the first settler, is buried.

Some other early settlers in the Vance Fork section were Asberry Stacy, Greenville Salyer, David Allen, William Griffiths, James Bailey, John E. Whit, John Prater, John Morris and Jim Bailey. All raised large families, and their descendants are now scattered from California to Texas.

H. W. Vance has five children. They are Mrs. Alleine McGuire, Ashland; Corlene Stafford, Bainbridge, O.; Walter Vance, Dayton, O.; Aubrey Vance, West Liberty; and Buford Vance, Odessa, Texas. At one time there were nearly a hundred children in the Vance Fork school and from these were many who have made good in many places. H. C. Allen, an attorney in Charleston, W. Va., his brother, Loy Allen, a newspaper man in California, and many other who have made good.

Mrs. Helton Speaks To College Students

Mrs. Clyde Helton of West Liberty addressed the Nutrition class at Morehead State College Monday night of last week and took her 80 petit fours (French pastries), English fruit cake and Florence (sponge) cake with which to treat the class.

Mrs. Helton was invited to talk by Miss Mary Katherine Blevins and Mrs. Harold Hammond, both of West Liberty, who are taking the class.

Native of Grangemouth, Scotland, and many-talented, Mrs. Helton is accomplished in preparing and serving foods, especially French cuisine. Her earlier training was in commercial art, and her work in the art field has been an aid to her in artistic decoration of cakes and pastries.

Although Mrs. Helton has been a resident of the United States for twenty-five years, she has retained her Scotch humor and speech. This made her visit to Morehead College more enjoyable for the visitors and students—and Mrs. Helton, too, received immense pleasure from her trip to Rowan County.

TRUE FISH STORY
We have had news about some one taking the fish off another line, robbing hooks, etc. This is a different story. Saturday afternoon a man was fishing in a boat at the pond. He caught two fish. On the other side of the pond another man was fishing. He caught two fish, ran out of minnows and left his hooks set and baited while going after bait. When he came back he pulled out one pole and yelled he had a big fish. Another hook, and a good fish on it. He thought he had caught him while gone. Late that evening the man in the boat left. Another man on the other side said he had something to tell me if I would not tell it. He said the man in the boat took his fish and put them on my hooks. Of all fish stories, this is the limit. The man in the boat was Amos Day. We cannot divulge the other two.

Ed Dennis caught a fish at Virginia Beach a few days ago. He did not know what kind it was. L. A. Jennings of the Kentucky Power Company of Pikeville said: "If Joe Allen said a big fish was at the Gordon Ford I will believe it."

Amos Day has built a boat with a reversible prop to turn the boat. A patent perhaps could be obtained for it. It would be excellent for fishing.

Tom Henry of Ezel was in town Monday, said he was preparing to try line fishing.

Tom Wells has been fishing all winter, whenever he takes a notion.

Miles Ferguson of Cannel City caught two bass 30 inches long. Witnesses were Tom Walsh and Jewell Haney.

TUPPERWARE DEALER
I have just recently secured the dealership for the nationally advertised TUPPERWARE Plastic Products for the home. These products are sold only through home demonstration parties and valuable prizes are given to the hostess. A nice percentage is paid any organization sponsoring such a party, and it is a wonderful way to raise money for your church or club.

I will be glad to contact anyone interested in planning a Tupperware demonstration. Tupperware is recommended by Good Housekeeping and Parents Magazine.
